Nedbank Private Wealth Family Banking terms and conditions

4 Qualifying criteria

4.1 To qualify for Family Banking, the criteria below must be met. We may amend the criteria, and if we do, we will give you notice.

4.2 You (as the primary client)

4.1.1 You must be the accountholder of the main account.

4.1.2 The main account must be in good standing.

4.1.3 You must ensure that you meet the main-banked requirements at all times.

4.3 Spouse

4.2.1 You must nominate your spouse to participate in Family Banking.

4.2.2 Your spouse must also have a Nedbank Private Wealth Bundle Account, which must be in good standing.

4.2.3 A monthly amount of at least R5 000 must be paid into your spouse's account and at least 3 money-out transactions must be performed from this account each month.

4.4 Children

4.3.1 You must nominate your children to participate in Family Banking.

4.3.2 Childrens' accounts must have a minimum monthly balance of R100, and their accounts must remain active. Their account will be considered active if a deposit is made into the account at least once every 35 days or if there is some activity on the account within 180 days.

4.3.3 If any action or acceptance of terms and conditions is required from minor children, you, as the primary client, must perform these actions.

5 Termination of Family Banking

5.1 If Family Banking is terminated, your main account and the accounts of your spouse and children will remain active, but the fees charged for family members' accounts will change from those listed in clause 3.

5.2 Family Banking will automatically terminate if the qualifying criteria set out in clause 4 are no longer met.

5.3 Family Banking for your spouse will terminate if your marriage or partnership in terms of a civil or customary union recognised under the laws of South Africa is dissolved. You must give us notice of the dissolution as soon as reasonably possible.

5.4 Family Banking for children will terminate on the date they turn 27.

5.5 If your main account is terminated in terms of the main account T&Cs, the Family Banking benefits for all family members will terminate automatically and the fees charged on these accounts will change.

6 Fee adjustments

Adjustments to fees or discounts, whether due to the termination of Family Banking or other reasons, will be applied retrospectively unless communicated otherwise. These adjustments will, however, only take effect the following month.
